Working Towards a
Multi-Cultural Society

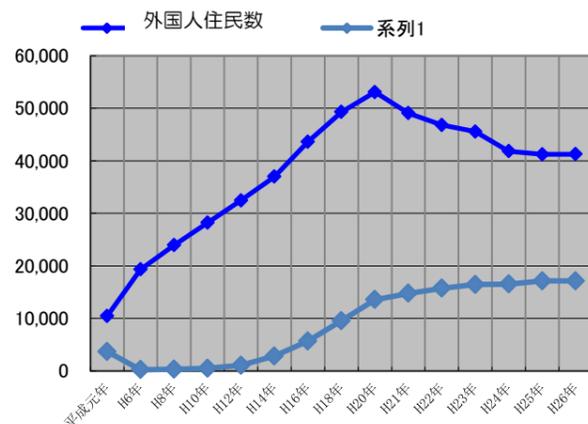

The Mie International Exchange Foundation (MIEF) was established as a public welfare organization in 1991 through the generous funding of local governments and private organizations. Year 2004, with the integration of Mie Prefecture Association of International Education, to support the education of children leading to a foreign countries.

April, 2016

Mie Prefecture Foreign Residents

In 1990, following the amendment of the Immigration Act that allows up to third-generation of Japanese dependents to receive long-term residency status, leads to increasing numbers of Overseas Japanese (Nikkei) from Brazil and other country. As a result, the number of foreign workers has risen rapidly. The number reached its peak in 2008 by 53,082 and decrease its number on consecutive years yet began to increase slightly by 41,625 December, 2015 and registered 2.25% of the total population which marked as the forth among 47 prefectures.

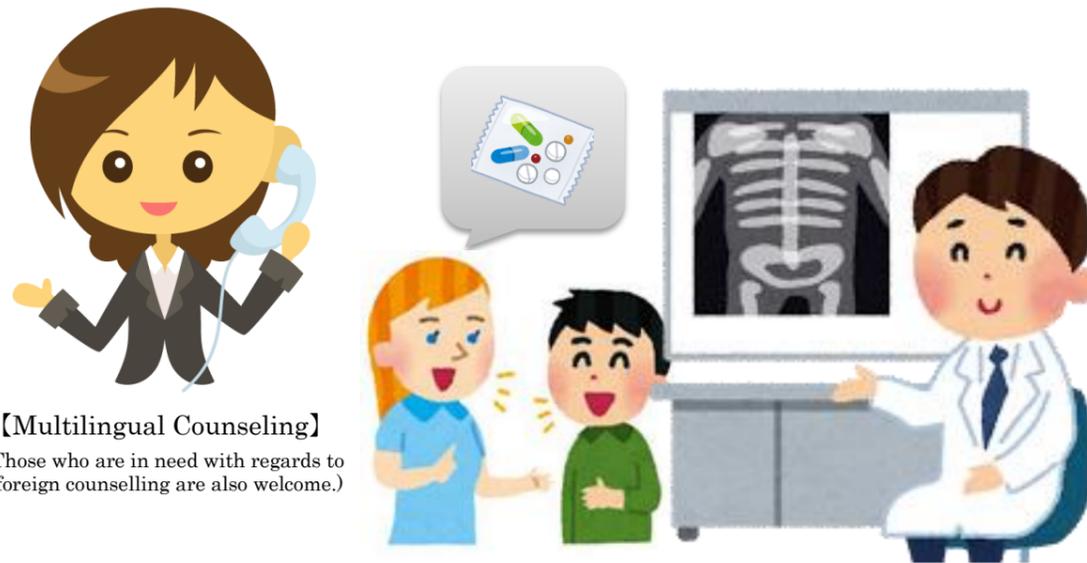

Furthermore, the number of foreigners who obtain “permanent resident” status has been increasing. Indicating foreigner’s settlement (employment, education and child care), into Japanese communities. But foreign residents here still face a variety of problems from different, “Language”, “Culture”, “Policies

” Ise Shima Summit and its future plan

In the upcoming Ise-Shima Summit in Mie, we help and give back-up for 300 guide volunteers to help experience and transmit the “Charm of Mie” to foreign language speakers as well as journalist who visit Ise Shima. Also, carrying out lectures to educational institutions by instructors of Summit participating countries.

【Multilingual Counseling】
(Those who are in need with regards to foreign counselling are also welcome.)

【Medical Interpreter Partner】

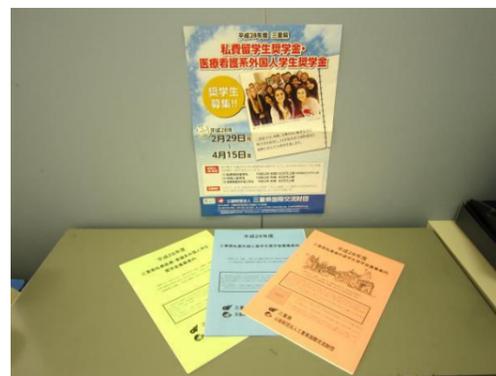

To help everyone in Mie live without worry....

After Tokyo, Aichi and Osaka, next in rank is Mie

We are striving to realize a multicultural society※ in Mie.

※Regardless of nationality, it is important to create a multicultural society in which differences in language, culture and customs are respected and recognized by everyone who lives in it.

【Foreign Students Scholarship】

『Mieko san no Nihongo』 Series
Every year, about 1,500 books have been reprinted

Along with everyone in Mie . . . The Three Pillars of MIEF !

【1. Promoting Multi-cultural Society】

★Livelihood support to foreign residents.

Multilingual Consultations(Portuguese, Spanish, Filipino, English, Chinese, Thailand, Vietnam). The annual number of consultations registered 900 reviews. We provide administrative and daily-life information and connect to specialized agencies to support problems arising from differences in “Language” and “Policies”.

★Promote mutual understanding.

Partnership System We widely recruit “partners”, those who share the awareness of supporting foreign residents, both linguistically and mentally. Registration is divided into 4 areas;

- ① Medical Partners: Interpreters for medical institution
- ② Japanese language Interpreters: Support foreign residents to learn Japanese
- ③ Translation/Interpretation Partners : Translation and interpretation service for various organization such as administrative agencies and schools
- ④ Disaster Support Partners : Provide multilingual information service upon disaster, etc.

★Support for students and educators.

With the aim of helping educators teach Japanese to non-Japanese students, we have created an original textbook series called 『Mieko san no Nihongo』 and we are distributing it for free to public schools around Mie. We also operate a multi-cultural education center called 「Miiku」 that contains teaching resources and books on Japanese language teaching.

【2. Promoting International Exchange】

We collect information on related NPO/NGO group which promotes international exchange. All lists are posted in MIEF website (total of 96 groups).

【3. Expansion of International Cooperation】

In response to the commission from Mie Prefecture, MIEF offers scholarships to local residents who are interested in studying overseas. We also act on behalf of the Mie Prefectural Government to invite Japanese teachers from overseas to come to Japan to increase their knowledge and further improve their skills.
